CONSENT TO PUBLISH

The University of Iowa Press (the Press) is pleased to have the privilege of publishing your Work, titled in the Book tentatively titled edited by

So that you as Author of the Work and the Press as Publisher of the Book may be protected from the consequences of unauthorized use of its contents, the Press considers it essential to register the copyright. To this end, we ask you grant us all rights to your Work by signing below.

1. The Press agrees to publish the Work in the Book, copyrighted by the Press. In consultation with its Editor, the Press may make your manuscript conform to a style of presentation, spelling, capitalization, and usage that it deems appropriate.
2. The Author guarantees that the Work is his or her original work and that it contains no misrepresentation of the work of other authors cited and no libel, invasion of privacy, or other unlawful matter; and he or she guarantees to hold the Press harmless from any claim or proceeding on such grounds. He or she further guarantees that the Work has not been previously published and is not scheduled for publication elsewhere, even in somewhat different form. The Author grants the Press the exclusive right to publish the Work in the original and in all subsequent editions and printings of the Book, including electronic/digital editions, in all foreign-language translations published by the Press or its licensees, and in versions made by nonprofit organizations for blind or physically handicapped persons.
3. Upon the Author's request, the Press will grant gratis to the Author a nonexclusive license to republish the Work in revised or unrevised form in any language in a book written or edited by the Author after the Work has been published. The Press will then inform the Author of the required wording of the copyright notice.

4. Permissions for photocopying the Work will be managed by the Press either directly or through the Copyright Clearance Center. Fifty percent of all monies collected as permissions fees will be paid to the Author annually once the Press has received the Author's Social Security Number or other form of tax identification number. It is the responsibility of the Author to keep the Press informed of his or her current address.

5. The Press will not refuse requests to reprint the Work unless it judges the proposed use to be in direct competition with the Book.

6. It is the Author's responsibility to keep the Press informed of address changes.

7. Upon publication of the Work, the Author may purchase copies of the Book for his or her own use (but not for resale) by direct order to the Press, c/o Chicago Distribution Center (1-800-621-2736) at 40% discount from list price.
